

Project Status & Regulatory Disclaimer

Purpose and Mission

Blue Arc Research™ is a personal macro-trading documentation initiative focused on:

- FX markets (G10 currencies)
- Interest rate differential (carry) strategy as the core thesis
- Technical filtering with trend and simple moving averages
- Professional research processes and risk discipline

This project aims to reflect an institutional-quality strategy development pipeline while maintaining a fully non-regulated status at this stage.

Current Regulatory Status

Blue Arc Research™ currently:

- Does not manage external client money
- Does not provide regulated advice or brokerage services
- Operates in demo/simulated trading environments
- Is not required to hold regulatory authorization under ESMA or Polish regulations for its activities

Future Scope Statement:

If Blue Arc Research™ transitions into managing capital or providing regulated services, it will obtain:

- Proper registration under the relevant financial authority
- Full statutory compliance with regulations (MiFID II / AIFMD, etc.)

No such transition has occurred yet.

No Solicitation / No Advice

All content is intended only to:

- Educate
- Share process transparency
- Demonstrate practical macro strategy development

Nothing here constitutes:

- Investment advice
- A securities recommendation
- An offer to invest or form a fund

Performance Transparency

Any displayed results:

- Come from demo or simulated accounts
- Do not reflect real liquidity, slippage, or emotional pressure
- Cannot guarantee similar future results

Past performance — real or simulated — is not a reliable indicator of outcomes.

Intellectual Property

All original content, branding, and research are protected by:

- Copyright law
